We have two new helpers for the website! How lucky are we?! Rachel Walters and Dave Pellegrini. Rachel has extensive experience in Marketing and Dave is a skilled at designing websites and will be able to help us jazz up our site. I am so thankful for the both of them!

Infrastructure: Ford Cavallari
February was a busy month preparing for the Tunnel of Love. Had to coordinate the lighting for Robyn. Build illuminated hearts. Reuse vinyl from Home Depot. Coordinate music for afternoon and evening for the event. Put in sound system with Steve Mirabella. Plays all night when lights are on. Have to adjust the sound. Speakers are located in the trellis. Will continue to tweak set up.

Membership: Beverly Knight
Working on Database with Rita, Gail and Meredith.
2017 - 291 Members includes individuals, couples and businesses
Beginning to organize Membership Drive in April. Notice to go out in March.
Venue to be determined but probably the Living Room.
Last year’s Trivia Night was too costly as there was a low turnout. Cost $300 plus food budget. If do Trivia Night again, may have to charge more to help with cost.

Horticulture: Robyn Reed
I contacted Schumacher Landscaping about talk about removing the roses from the side beds of the rose garden in the spring. The Horticulture group has decided we need to remove the roses because of the extensive root damage made by the rats, and replace them with new, easier to care for roses. Dominic from Schumacher will provide a quote for the project for me in the next few days and I will share that with the Board. The project has been budgeted for 2018.
On March 18 there will be a pot luck get together for the Horticulture volunteers to plan our upcoming season. We are very excited for spring!

Park Art:
A sincere Thank You goes out to everyone who helped out with the Tunnel of Love project - from conception to execution. It was a tremendous success and I could not have done it without the help from everyone. I estimated about 600 people walked through the Tunnel on Saturday, but others feel it was more than that. I know I provided 300 hearts for people to sign, and we gave out all of them, plus extras.
I am starting to plan the summer art projects, and my theme right now is "Birds, Bees and Butterflies." If anyone has any comments or suggestions or ideas, please contact me.

Thank You Presentation to Robyn Reed: Joanne Hayes-Rines
Joanne asked everyone with a phone to log onto www.foccp.org to see the new cover picture. Then, she presented Robyn a framed picture of the “north entrance to the Tunnel of Love” in recognition of all she did to make the event so wonderful.

Independence Celebration: Saturday, June 30th, 12:00 - 4:00. Chair is Ann Babbitt and she has engaged entertainers.
Also, HarborFest will be having their event on Sunday, July 1. It includes the art show and chowder fest.
